

Sustainability

We adopt sustainable and social practices in all of our productive processes ensuring excellence, responsibility and care from the farming to the distribution of our rice.

Logistical Agility

Our facility is located in Rio Grande do Sul, the state responsible for 70% of Brazil's rice production. With a privileged location, approximately 66 km from the Port of Rio Grande, we benefit from optimized logistics for product distribution, ensuring both efficiency and cost-effectiveness.

Ensured Quality

Our strict quality control standards reflect our unwavering dedication to providing rice that's consistently delicious and nourishing.

Innovation with purpose

We value Brazilian agricultural culture and foster its evolution through strong commercial partnerships and high industrial performance.

Get to know the Private Label model

We operate under the Private Label model, offering our clients the possibility to produce their own private brands.

In this scenario, clients can rely on the quality standards of rice from Arrozeira ADIB Peixoto, through a customized solution tailored to each brand's specifications.

Lower cost

Reduction of intermediary costs, which contributes to increased profit margins.

Flexible customization

Flexible customization through the development of tailored packaging and labels for the brand.

Customer loyalty

Customer loyalty through the guarantee of high-quality, flavorful, and nutritious products.
