

alnattural

EXOTIC FRUITS

Are You looking for sustainable suppliers?

Fresh fruit consumption worldwide is evolving towards a more sustainable approach to production and processing.

Free trade agreements

Thanks to Colombia's trade agreements with some of the world's markets, our products arrive at their destination with a 0% tariff.

Experience

We have producers with more than 25 years of experience in exotic fruits and specialized allies for the fast and safe shipment of fresh products by air cargo or sea freight

Transparency

We offer traceability and confidence to the importer, final consumer, banks, entities, producers and distributors at destination.

Blockchain traceability

Seasonality

Colombia's unique geographical position, our diversity of climates, soil and water quality allow us to have:

Production all year round
Shorter delivery time

Why should we become your supplier?

We care for the planet's resources through an integrated strategy under high standards of environmental and social responsibility.

4 exotic fruits this season

Discover our first quality exotic fruits. Deliver to your customers the best Colombian fruits anywhere.

Baby Bananas

Baby bananas are known for their delicious flavor, much sweeter than traditional bananas. It belongs to the same family as the common banana, but is only 7 centimeters long.

Granadilla

Granadilla grows in a creeper plant that belongs to "Passifloras" family. Its skin is smooth and thick, it has a yellow-orange color. Contains small black edible seeds, covered for a juicy white pulp.

Passion Fruit

Purple Passion Fruit is a semi-acid fruit, belongs to "Passifloras" family and native from Amazonas region. It has a round shape with a diameter between 4cm and 8cm and an average weight of 55g.

Tamarillo

Tamarillo, also known as Tree Tomato, is an exotic fruit characterized by its smooth, thin and bright red skin. Its pulp is yellowish, semi-acid and edible seeds.

STAY IN TOUCH

Office: Cll 94 # 21 - 76

Bogotá - Colombia

info@alnattural.com

WhatsApp +57 314 843 7564

www.alnattural.com

COLOMBIA 