

History of our company

Aeromás is a leading company in the commercial air transport market, with recognized prestige in Uruguay and Mercosur, providing air transportation services for passengers, mail and cargo.

It has been operating since 1984, and since then has consolidated a constantly growing client portfolio, with the highest level of satisfaction among domestic and foreign users.

After our association with Southern Cross Aviation Inc. from Fort Lauderdale FL, USA, Aeromás (Max Air S.A.) was born in 1997, providing the resources, technology and the necessary drive to reach the present stage of development and business maturity in which we find ourselves today.

Aeromas Services

Brokerage and Private Jet Charter

Cargo Feeders for FedEx and UPS

Air Ambulance

Acquisitions, Management and Maintenance

Training Center

