About us

We are a Language Service Provider with 12 years of experience serving companies in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Our clients choose us because we make translation easy. We take care of everything, from the initial quote all the way to post-sale support.

We focus on being the most reliable partner our clients could ever have.

Our main areas of expertise

Corporate & HR: At Australis, we know that Corporate and HR documents are one of the main ways your company connects with your people. Maximize your staff's engagement with our proven translation services.

Education: Showing and Telling is not the same as Educating. Our Education-specialized translators will take special care of your translations, just like you care for your students and the educational community.

Financial: When it comes to financial translations, timeliness is just as important as accuracy. At Australis, our financial translations experts will deliver top-quality translations right when you need them.

Healthcare: At Australis, we care about your patients just like you do. With our Healthcare-specialized translation services, make every patient feel cared for, no matter what language they speak.

IT & Software: Where technical and User-friendly meet. Our translations and services for the IT industry show a deep technical understanding of the IT world, and at the same time, we make that content available and friendly to millions of people worldwide.

Legal: Australis is your very own Legal Translations Department. Our Legal Translation team knows the ins and outs of the legal system and provides translations that are 100% accurate and timely.

Manufacturing: Qualified technical translators, process experts, and quality specialists. With the right team and a process that adapts to your operations, we are here to make your manufacturing translations a success in any language.

Safety: Safety is always first, and at Australis that's the approach we take in everything that we do. Our experts in Translations for Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) will provide you with professional translations you can rely on.

A proven and comprehensive translation service

We only work with professional translators who are native speakers of the target language – NO exceptions.

We adapt to your process, terminology, and any special instructions you may have.

Our 3-step Translation+Editing+Proofreading process guarantees the quality of our translations.

We work with state-of-the-art Quality Assurance tools that allow us to maintain consistency and align our translations to any existing terminology.

Our process also includes a Quality Control of the file format, so the end result is files that are ready to be sent to the end client.

We have a wide network of translators and work with over 100 different language combinations:
