

Essential Oils Peru

100% Pure and Natural Oils innovating with social responsibility

Our work system and the network of communities that we manage allow our clients to choose the products that best suit their purpose and budget.

Essential Oils Peru

uses native raw materials harvested in a sustainable way with the suport of local communities who are carefully chosen for being ethical producers.

Used extensively in aromatherapy as well as in cosmetics, skin and body care products, pharmaceuticals and perfumery.

Essential Oils are always the best alternative to add natual ingredients to your formula.

We are the best choice for finding new ingredients from the Amazonia and the Andes that will give an extra value to your innovation process.
