The Rosario Islands (or Corales del Rosario) is a small archipelago formed by some 28 islands, which is part of the island area of Cartagena de Indias, with a land area of 20 hectares (0.20 km<sup>2</sup>) located off the coast from the Department of Bolívar, at the same latitude as the Barú peninsula. One of the national natural parks of Colombia is located, created to protect one of the most important coral reefs of the Colombian Caribbean coast.

It is a territory belonging to the Colombian Atlantic region and depends on the department of Bolívar.

The islands consist of a small platform composed of successive coral formations at different depths. The park has an extension of 120,000 ha, from the highest tide line to the 50 meters deep beril, it includes the underwater platform and coral reefs west of the Barú peninsula, the reefs of the Our archipelagos Señora del Rosario and San Bernardo and the underwater platform between these two archipelagos, in addition to the islands of Tesoro, Rosario, Múcura and Maravilla.

Below we will present the best options of Eco Hotels, Resorts and Luxury resorts in the Rosario Islands so that you can observe prices and locations and can make a decision more suited to your expectations and budget.
