

COMERCIALIZADORA SANTA ANA S DE RL

We are a company dedicated to the commercialization of alcoholic beverages such as craft beer, and handcraft like bags, wallets, shawl embroidery by hand.

We represent this brand of beers for the high quality standards that distinguish it as well as the commitment and attention to every detail of the production process which is a guarantee of quality and flavor. By uncovering the bottles, color, fragrance and deep flavors are manifested that can only be found in premium category beers like this one.

These beers are made with recipes designed for the palate of new consumers, those who not only seek to refresh themselves, but to enjoy an experience that transforms their sensations into emotions.

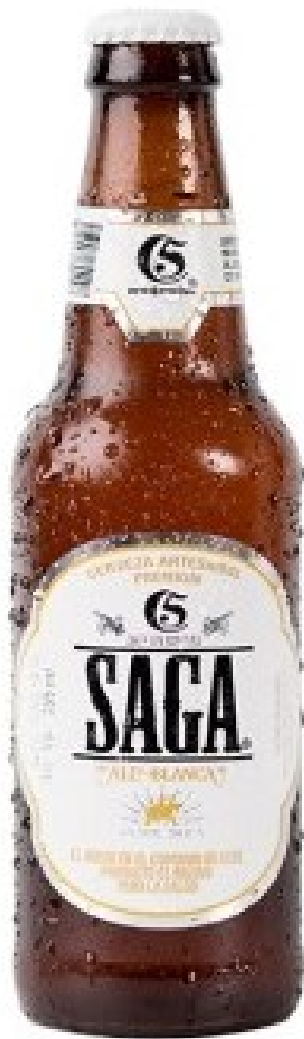

SAGA and OSADIA are premium beers created from well-maintained recipes and quality controls similar to those of large companies, but with the love, care and passion of craft brewers.

This beer is made in Atlixco with distilled water by the volcano known worldwide called Popocatepetl, which gives unparalleled and unique flavor, highlighting the flavors.

Although the malt is of Belgian origin, it will soon be exchanged for national malt, which will make it one hundred percent beer in Mexico.

OSADÍA

In 1862 the most powerful army in the world was French, in Mexico our army was divided between liberals and conservatives; nevertheless the liberal army managed to gather the sufficient strength and courage to have the OSADY of facing the enemy in a military feat that we honored like qthis beer.

OSADÍA is a Dubbel beer, with 6 specialty malts, which provide smoked notes, wood and coffee. Designed with the same purpose of the baroque gastronomy of Puebla, many flavors that are enhanced by marrying it with our typical stews, with meats, ripened and roasted cheeses.

The recipe for Osadía is inspired by the Trappist or abbey beers that are traditionally made in European monasteries and convents
