Our Story

One Sunday afternoon in Trinidad & Tobago, in 2014, Nigel Jordan and his son, Isaac thought that the herbs in the family garden could be part of a great craft project. They looked great and tasted way better than expected.

This was the start of great things to come!

Traditional Caribbean Flavour hand crafted from the finest natural ingredients. With ingredients so rich and bursting with flavour there would be no need for additives. The next few months were spent developing techniques to deliver a luxurious taste of the Caribbean to the world... Naturally. We now have product available in the UK, USA and to the world via our website.

Who We Are

With eco-consciousness ingrained in the company's DNA, Twigs Naturals' commitment to sustainably producing high quality teas and spices doesn't just end with working with farmers that utilize natural and sustainable farming methods.

Caribbean grown products are packaged in resealable and reusable packaging made from recyclable material. Production takes place in our versatile plant, specialized in organic processing to efficiently work within the green economy.

The main production ethos utilizes quality subsystems; Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and employ US FDA Certified Food Safety Personnel.

The Result

Through our dedication to quality we have been able to attain several international awards. Twigs Naturals, the first Caribbean brand to win awards at the Global Tea championship was able to attain awards in 2 categories.

Our Teas

Twigs Naturals products are packaged in resalable Stand up Kraft pouches. Our teas are packaged with 10 individual servings of teabags made of non-woven Zein fabric.

Zein is a fabric made from corn starch. It is Biodegradable and food safe

These oversized teabags give the drinker the optimal portion of ingredients. Interaction of water and ingredient is critical so this packing method gives convenient cleanup with the flavor experience of traditional methods. It's not uncommon for teabags to become filled during the steeping process as the ingredients expand in the water.

Transport yourself to the vibrant Caribbean with our captivating Blends.

These carefully curated infusions of indigenous herbs and botanicals brings the essence of the tropical paradise to your cup. Experience the invigorating flavors of hand blended excellence. Crafted with care and packed for freshness, our blends offer a delightful sensory journey that revitalizes and relaxes.

Caribbean Christmas Tea

With Twigs Naturals Caribbean Christmas Tea the yuletide season lasts all year. Our Silver Medal winner at the Global Tea Championships of 2017 is a delicious, full-bodied, caffeine-free herbal blend that contains no added flavours, colours, preservatives or fillers.

We combine Wild Hibiscus with Anise seeds to create a warm, tangy and floral flavour base with notes of spicy liquorice. The Wild Hibiscus adds a tangy sensation to the tea while the Anise adds a touch of sweetness. The result is a uniquely delicious tea that can be enjoyed hot or cold. One serving will go a long way and make the most wonderful Christmas gift any time of year.

Tasting Notes

Flavour: Warm and Tangy full-bodied base with a liquorice trail.

Aroma: Rich floral notes of plum and cranberries with a tropical air

Green Tea

Green tea is a type of tea that is made from Camellia sinensis leaves and buds that have not undergone the same withering and oxidation process used to make oolong teas and black teas. Twigs Naturals' expression of this traditional tea is manifested in the form of full leaf gunpowder that has been rolled to perfection. Your cup is the vessel for this rich liquor that carries with it smokey undertones.

Tasting Notes
