Motivational Speaker

She has had training on women development from Paris, France. Through her business interactions, her own capacity as a woman has developed immensely and decided to passionately develop other women especially working in a male dominated industry.

She is the founder and president of a women's network called Circle of Influence (COI): Be that GIANT of a women! COI is a Women Network with a founding statement: Leadership is influence. Using what we already have, to increase our capacity. Her mission is to ignite women's PASSION so that their PURPOSE can be met which will in turn give women POWER to increase their capacity to influence. She is an ambassador for women within her circle of influence whether it is in the corporate arena or social environment.

Her notable success in her working career was breaking ground within the smart advanced metering industry for a multinational company which was predominantly a prepaid company. Through new ventures she brought into the company, it was announced in a company meeting of the notable success she had pioneered to make the company a smart prepayment company. She now has over 10 years' experience in the manufacturing industry dealing with prepaid metering and SMART solutions.

Through all her experiences, she has seen how customer service excellence, excelling in whatever you do, will set the bar in being noticed by the world. She has a zeal in taking brands from one level to another and seeing small businesses expand to middle and large organizations.

She speaks on her story mostly as it always motivates others to stand up and want to self develop to a new level whether in corporate or individual business. She is also cognisant of different messages that need to be disseminated and always align with the relevance of the topic at hand.

South Africa currently sits with the highest youth unemployment rate in the world and this has to change. Excellent services delivery execution and clientele growth within businesses to curb youth unemployment and promote entrepreneurship is the key for the economy of South Africa. Each attendee is guaranteed to leave our workshops with a business mindset that is ready to work and advertise their products and services differently from how they were doing business prior to the workshop.

Business

Even the best corporate strategies are executed by people and people aren't just tools. They come in the whole – good and bad, passion, strengths, challenges, emotions, habits and aspirations. Through our training program, we help you get the best from your people or organization in terms of Customer Service, Tender Preparation, Sales and Executive Training by aligning them to the organizational goals and developing them in these core areas. In the end, it's the collective wisdom that will create the required business impact. Talk to us for training in your facility or our own venue.

The session we had with Nozi was insightful and gave us as females the optimism for the future. Her presentation was eye-catching and so easy to follow. After the presentation we felt obligated to stick to our goals and even create new ones to be the best we can be. Nozi ensured that the presentation was not a one-sided discussion but interactive and gave us the opportunity to ask question and make comments.

We will definitely be making use of her services for future sessions and for any other platform that require empowerment not only for Women for an organization
