

Where there's family,
there is Dinda.

About Dinda

Dinda Foods is a contemporary brand with a portfolio that covers almost every food category, providing high quality products to the entire family.

We select the best ingredients to bring to your home the best. More than nourish body, we want to rescue the importance of family moments. For us, food plays an important role in building bonds: bringing people together and strengthening ties.

Our mission is to arouse emotions through palate, bringing family's comfort and warmth to your table.

The Meaning of Dinda

“DINDA” in Brazil is a special person, friend or close family member. Chosen by the child’s parents to help them in their raising, protecting and accompanying family members throughout their lives!

A word full of love and affection that expresses exactly the great differential of our products.
