

Dear friends:

We greet you on behalf of Golden South, Business, a company dedicated to the international promotion, marketing, and distribution of Peruvian products. We are united in this great endeavor to complete and supply the international market in the optimal timeframe and conditions, based on your unquestionable expectations.

Our services are supported by highly experienced professionals, allowing us to evaluate and establish a scope of action throughout most of the country, identifying the best-performing production areas in accordance with international quality standards. Our goal is to provide agricultural export products optimal for the needs of our customers, almost all year round.

Below, we provide our presentation and catalogs of products available for 2025, with an open offer for other products that may be of interest to you. Finally, our service will be our best letter of introduction.

Sincerely,

Fabian F. Aquije

Efficient export.

The growing international demand for traditional, perishable Peruvian products requires maximizing the highest quality in products and services.

Golden South Business was born in response to these demands, formed by specialists with recognized experience around the world.

Specific calibration, ripening stage, freezing temperature, and all the elements that guarantee product delivery meet the requirements of our exclusive client base.

Products available by season.

Mangoes, mandarins, Hass avocados, blueberries, and other products are exported in various sizes and according to harvest seasons, within the recommended shipping times, for their perfect presence in your area, just as you requested and needed.

Experience that is a GUARANTEE.

Because we know how important it is to provide the best service, we offer:

- > The best packing and transportation team
- > Specialists in fast and efficient customs management
- > Complete management of protocols for international markets.

We manage agreements directly with producers in the field, ensuring that orders go through the most efficient and minimal processes, from extraction through packaging protocols, transportation, and customs, while maintaining the highest standards of quality and quantity.

We know how.
