

We want to introduce you to The Dulce de leche, better known as milk caramel spread, the ideal companion in family breakfasts and afternoon snacks. As well as a great ingredient in both homemade and industrial preparations of cakes, crepes, waffles, desserts, chocolates, biscuits, puddings, ice creams and an unlimited variety of recipes. Not to mention its exquisite taste as a topping, filling, icing or frosting for "alfajores", candies, cookies, cupcakes, pies, in addition to the already mentioned uses.

Dulce de leche is a confection prepared by slowly heating sweetened milk to create a product that derives its taste from the caramelization of the product, changing flavor and color. Literally translated, it means "candy of milk", it has been presented in Argentina's and Uruguay's tables everyday for over a hundred years. Because of this, it has become one of the most acclaimed national ambassadors abroad.

Without the shadow of a doubt, "Dulce de Leche" has a unique and incomparable taste, intense color, soft texture and harmonious aroma which makes it the strongest product in the sweet market.

Latingoods Corp. have selected two brands, one from Argentina, San Ignacio and the other from Uruguay, Colonial of Granja Pocha, which are elaborated by two main companies who are permanently under strict audits by worldwide recognized companies in the world.
