Products

The puma or cougar is associated with the sun and believed to be a wise creature and to have the power of healing. Our Puma roast takes the balance and refinement of this feline highlighting its brightness, full body and emphasizing its chocolate, hazelnut and caramel tones to bring you an intensely sweet and enchanting experience.

The armadillo has a great variety of species each with very different characteristics. Traditionally its armor was used to make musical instruments. Our Armadillo coffee represents that complexity of expressions in its medium light bake that results in a sophisticated and harmonious aroma and taste with fruit, flower and spice notes that will give pleasure to your senses.

The flamingo is a highly sociable and communicative aquatic bird; it travels vast distances in large groups. Its feathers have been used to represent nobility and creativity. Our Flamingo decaffeinated coffee is naturally water processed so it maintains its original properties and essence.
