ABOUT US

We are an inclusive organization that allows community involvement with farming families in the Ecuadorian coast, and a small group of business leaders who like to support THE organic production with high social value. Together we have a vision of environmental conservation and biodiversity, respect workers rights within the parameters of the FAIR trade certificate.

Farmers have mixed organic crops with species such as cocoa, banana, cassava, passion fruit and fruit trees like guava, orange, lemon, these products are grown with important species of timber trees on each farm of our partners.
