

FOUNDATION AND EVOLUTION OF THE FIRM

Sáenz & Asociados was founded as a firm in January 1979, by the brothers Humberto Sáenz Cevallos and Mario Enrique Sáenz. The first clients of the firm were companies specially linked to the construction industry, banks, and national savings and loan associations. The practice of the firm was gradually expanded and now we represent and also advise national and foreign companies that belong to various sectors such as telecommunications, gas and energy, finance, insurance, services, pharmaceutical industry, technology, product distribution, tourism, transportation , aeronautics and others. We have also developed extensive experience in advising States, public institutions and autonomous institutions. The firm has come to be recognized in the region, as one of the most important firms with the most experience in arbitration and legal litigation, both nationally and internationally.

Latin Lawyer: “Regularly seen representing public entities in high stakes litigations and arbitrations, Sáenz & Asociados has carved out a profitable niche for itself in disputes, but that’s not all this firm is capable of: corporate work, IP, tax labour are also strong offers.”

Chambers Latin America: “Stellar practice group of Sáenz & Asociados with capabilities covering all forms of dispute resolution. Deep experience representing public entities and commercial clients in both litigation and arbitration domestically and internationally. Notable expertise before major arbitral entities across Central America including the ICC, AAA and ICSID. Has significant knowledge of cases relating to construction, energy and telecommunications.”

The Legal 500: “Dispute Resolution ‘is in the DNA’ of Sáenz & Asociados with eight of the firm’s nine partners participating in litigation, arbitration or mediation/ADR matters. The established and reputable practice group handles major litigation and international arbitration cases, and frequently represents clients in the construction, telecoms and energy industries - including high - profile cases for clients such as Telefónica, Telemóvil, Fomilenio and CEPA.”
