PAMPA | MADE IN CHILE

We are a family business born with the purpose of doing what we love: to design and craft colorful woven blankets to give a nice and warm touch to any corner of your home.

Our first and original product is made with an exquisite HB yarn, giving birth to a soft and beautiful blanket purposed for a daily use and forming a great set when combined with our matching-color pillows .

We are always looking for new product opportunities so if you have any request or suggestion please let us know!

We invite you to explore our work.
