GREEN COCONUT AND COCONUT PRODUCTS

Coconuts are washed one by one followed by the application of a biodegradable film responsible for the conservation of the green coconut. Thanks to this edible coating, which can extend the life of the fruit up to four times, we have a much longer, shelf life. With this special procedure, the green coconut arrives in the best possible conditions at the destination.

The use of this technology maintains the nutritional features of a natural coconut, exactly how it is found in nature. The water is pure, without color and taste modifications, perfect for a demanding consumer market.

SUGAR CANE LIQUOR (CACHAÇA) AND TIQUIRA

We also have the possibility of private label and sales in bulk, just ask us for more details and varieties.

Prata,
Jequitibá
and Amburana

GUAJAJA was created to provide the tasting of this distillate with the signature flavor and identity of the tiquira, an ancestral distillate 100% brazilian. In the early days the brazilian indians produced and drank the Cauím, a fermented alcoholic drink prepared from cassava (also known as manioc). The Cauím was consumed in ceremonies and special occasions. With the distillation of the Cauím, the Ti-kyra was originated. A word that, to the Tupi Indians, meant "liquid that drips".

THE MOST INCREDIBLE AND UNIQUE
DISTILED. HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT CASSAVA
LIQUOR? YES, WE HAVE THIS IN BRAZIL.

FRUITS SNACKS

In a process realized through forced hot air, we took out more than 96% of humidity of the fruits, having a 1 year shelf life without preservatives and not using any kind of additives, keeping the fruits as natural as possible. You will have in a package one entire pineapple (one of the flavors), enjoying just the vitamins and the natural taste of the brazilian tropical fruits.

Flavors like pineapple (with pepper also) mango and mango with pepper, apple, melon, watermelon with gengiber, banana, mix of fruits, banana with cashew nuts and much more...

NATURAL JUICES

With a special bottling method, the most pure juice of grape, white grape, apple, tangerine and teas with fruits... Ask us for more details.

FUNCTIONAL JUICES

We just have in our portfolio natural juices, full of vitamins, bringing the natural taste of the fruits and not using additives or preservatives to achieve this healthy point.

Flavors like cashew apple juice, organic cashew juice, beetroot with acai and banana... As pure as the fruit.

Pink Peppercorn

When you buy the pink peppercorn of the Aroeira Association you are helping to preserve the sociobiodiversity of the region of Foz do Rio São Francisco, source of livelihood for it's riverside population, in the Brazilian Northeast.

URUCUM

Urucum - Annatto has a rich source of antioxidants such as cis-bixin, carotenoids, and vitamin A. It also contains minerals like calcium, sodium, and iron. It has a relatively high content of dietary fiber. The high concentration of tocotrienols, which are similar in effects and structure as vitamin E, makes this plant substance powerful with incredible health benefits.

HONEY AND RED PROPOLIS

Red bee propolis is packed with nutrients and antioxidants. It's very rich in minerals, including some of the trace minerals that we don't get enough of if we eat processed and chemically farmed foods. Also booster the immune system, reduce inflammation and help repair wounds.

Just found in Brazil, red propolis has been widely studied, and found to contain an extremely high level of antioxidants, much more than regular propolis. Antioxidants counter the free radicals that damage our cells and promote cancer.

Researchers found also, that red propolis killed 100 percent of pancreatic cancer cells observed. This type of cancer is notoriously difficult to eradicate using treatment methods.

COCOA POWDER

CHESSE BREAD AND GARLIC BREAD

"Pão de queijo" (pronounced pow-dji-KEHjo, sort of) is probably Brazil's most famous food export. Very similar to Gourgeres, pão de queijo is basically a pate a choux, but made with tapioca flour instead of wheat flour. So, first is a naturally gluten-free and second it doesn't require kneading or rinsing time. Prove also our delicious garlic bread.

NATCHUP - NATURAL SAUCE

This is an Acerola Sauce!!!

A new sauce and a taste over your healthy. The best natural option in terms of natural sauces. Having a unique taste, it was developed after years and years of studies, resulting in its unique product made of a mix, between acerola, pumpkin, beet and spices.

A product full of vitamins, ideal for sandwiches, pastas, finger foods and all of the recipes you want! Just combine your imagination with healthy practices and use it!
