VL9.

Who we are

In small words, who are VLg.?

If you want something done, do it yourself. It was from this principle that the VLg was born.

We emerged from a need faced by years in International Trade:

Partners.

We always had good products, means of delivery, but we always had difficulties to find the right partner in destination that represent us, to sell and distribute our products.

We are Service providers.
We are Merchants.
We are a brand.

We are VLg.!

Currently, VLg is part of a Brazilian Companies pool

We have in Brazil all the necessary structure to operate in International Trade, as follow:

Group Performances

Customs Broker

With a customs broker agency, we're capable to offer all kind of consultancy or assistance related to international trade and clearance.

Acting at Santos port, main brazilian airports and fronteers.

Trading in Brasil

This group division is destinated for foreign companies that wonder to put your product in brazilian market, or need any kind of consolidation services from any brazilian manufacturers/products and dispatch from Brazil reducing shipping costs.

Trading Overseas

With a branch in USA , we put at your disposal:

- Comercial representation services;
- Warehousing;
- Distribution;
- Fullfilment and redirections.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a grand, classical building facade, likely a government or institutional building. The building features multiple stories with arched windows and doorways, ornate carvings, and a balcony. A large Brazilian flag is flying from the balcony. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent white box on the right side of the image.

Brazilian Facts

- The Federative Republic of Brazil is Latin America's largest economy. With 3,290,000 square miles, bordering 10 other countries and with 4,650 miles of coastline, Brazil is the largest country in Latin America and fifth largest in the world. Brazil's 2015 Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of US$2.2 trillion ranks Brazil as the world's eighth-largest economy;
- Brazil is Latin America's largest country, and the ninth largest economy in the world. According to the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), Brazil was the eighth largest destination for global Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) flows in 2015. Brazil typically receives close to half of South America's total incoming FDI;
- Brazil has 13 cities with over one million residents and its most important cities are São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Salvador;

São Paulo Facts

- São Paulo is both the name of a state, as well as, a city. This state has 645 municipalities and a population of approximately 40 million inhabitants. According to IBGE, Brazil's main government research institute, the population in the city of São Paulo is about 11 million inhabitants. If we take into account the metropolitan area, which includes 38 smaller cities around the capital, the population is almost 19,000,000 inhabitants.
- São Paulo is, by far, the most important industrial State of Brazil. The region that surround São Paulo city, which includes the cities of Santo André, São Bernardo, São Caetano, Diadema (known as ABCD), Guarulhos, Osasco, Suzano and others (collectively known as Grande São Paulo) concentrates the largest and most diversified industrial park of the country.

A close-up, warm-toned photograph of a person with long blonde hair, wearing a blue top and a watch, sitting at a desk and writing in a spiral-bound notebook with a black pen. To the left of the notebook is a white ceramic coffee cup on a matching saucer. In the foreground, a portion of a silver laptop is visible. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a window and other desk items. A semi-transparent dark teal rectangular box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing the text 'VLg. In Action' in white.
