About the Company

We have trained and skilled personnel to produce products following the quality standards and regulations, we currently have a team of eight (8) peoples, including: food engineers; production staff; logistics staff; and graphic design staff.

Our company is located in Santiago de Chile, in Caupolicán 9450, 12-Quilicura, we have specialized work spaces for all our activities, such as: laboratory for new products development; a production area where all our products are made; processing area for transformation raw materials and mixture manufacturing; and warehouse.

We also have the necessary equipment and instrumentation for our products manufacturing.

Hi, I'm Carolina
The Founder

About us

We are a couple, Carolina and Carlos, who rethink our lives and thus Aukas was born.

Aukas is our family project, which seeks and invites you to take care of yourself, to feel a unique experience, to rebel and transform a simple dish into a new one with incomparable flavor and finesse without being an expert.

Aukas means rebels in Mapuche language and our products are the flavors rebellion that inspires to return to the natural and healthy life.

Our Speciality

Elaboration of gourmet products, with an innovative fusion of Flavors, Textures and Aromas, in an attractive presentation composed of unique mixtures of spices and dehydrated condiments, with ethnic characteristics of Chile and in fusion with different cultures.

Preparation of gif pack for companies, tailored to any needs or budget.

Elaboration of Food Service Products, designed for each market and public.

Enhance your Flavors

Our Product

In Aukas we are dedicated to Gourmet products elaboration, specialized in rock salt crystals from Atacama Desert (The purest on the planet and 100% microplastics free) and spices from all world, where Chile ethnic and indigenous flavors are mixed with others from all over South America.

Our products are designed to facilitate the kitchen work, from a professional Chef who wants to standardize their flavors or streamline their processes, to a housewife who wants to be a better host or be able to easily prepare dips and recipes without knowing much about cooking.

All our products are handmade, 100% natural and without additives or preservatives, all include a Chile ethnic and / or native component and we offer a wide variety of presentations that suits all needs.

Unique Like You

We offer attractive and unique products, in fusion with others in the world, 100% natural without additives or preservatives, to prepare all kinds of dishes, meats, fish, vegetables, sweets and spicy.

Our products quality and its differentiating characteristics allowed us to be present in the Expo Milan 2015 Chilean pavilion. In addition, to represent Chile in the 2012 SIAL D'Or contest, considered the "Oscar" of the food industry and that distinguishes the new innovative products of the world every two years.

Season your Style

Do it Faster, Make it Better

Spice Jars, a products line specialized in providing cooking facilities, they are mixtures of spices or individual spices that allow you to improve the preparation's flavor without having kitchen experience.

We have ideal blends and spices for red meat, white meat, fish, seafood, vegetables, desserts, cocktails and appetizers, in powder and flakes
