Presentation: 7.5 Onzas y 4 onzas

Description: Our smoked products are always developed from top quality and fresh specimens, received weekly from their point of origin. Our smoking process maintains a perfect balance between technology and craftsmanship. The smoking technique uses a combination of fine woods and herbs in an intentionally slow manner acquiring a delicate flavor and texture. Finally, the strictest quality controls are applied in each of these phases of the process supported by a comprehensive system of traceability. This makes our smoked line of Baja Cavala the highest quality reference and leading brand in the modern distribution channel of Baja California.

Sal de mar del mar de Cortez

Tipos: Natural, with garlic, Onion, pepper, chipotle chili, Mexican, Mezquite, Copal, Olive

Pesos: 141 grs, 170 grs, 500 grs, 1 Kg.

Descripcion: World famous San Felipe Natural Sea Salt is produced in an area called the Ometepepec Estuary in Baja California. The Estuary is within the “Reserva de la Biosfera del Alto Golfo de California y Delta del Río Colorado” an important biological reserve.

The Estuary is of such a natural design that at the times of a full moon, when the tides are at the highest, the Estuary will flood with sea water from the Sea of Cortez. As the moon wanes and the water recedes the flood water is trapped in the Estuary. Because of the heat and the dry desert winds of the Baja the water, H₂O, begins to evaporate making the remaining sea water more concentrated or dense and heavier. The heavy, concentrated water soaks into the sands below creating an underground basin of highly concentrated sea water. Sea water in its natural state contains approximately 3.5% salt. The concentrated sea water in the underground basin is approximately 20% salt

Natural Concentrates for Flavored Water
