

Surandes
CORPORACIÓN

Our commitment

Our Peruvian company Surandes born in 2014, is expert in the production of SUPERFOODS such as the quinoa, amaranth, chia, maca and canihua.

Peruvian soil has amazing resources that cannot be held within the borders of our country.

Our Supply Chain was developed to monitor the farming, harvesting, and processing of our raw material, allowing us to constantly deliver HIGH-QUALITY products that our clients can trace from our fields to their warehouse.

Our certification

We are always oriented to obtain the best quality product which is why our department of quality insurance is working in close connection with the production department. In order to maintain our high value, our quality engineers are following a continuing training program that keeps them up-to-date with the latest quality parameters that each international market requires.
