TAUNSA Group

From field to table,
From our soil to the world

TAUNSA Group

Pleasure, we are Taunsa Group, a company with more than 10 years of experience in the agribusiness market, we deliver very high quality grains and services, operating in various stages of soy and corn production until reaching the consumer's table.

How do we do it? Creating a strong and transparent supply chain, which delivers to national and international customers the fruits of its own plantations and producers, fairly and ensuring business ethics.

We are even stronger when we join forces with rural producers, customers, governments and communities in favor of conscious agribusiness, reducing environmental impacts and contributing to society.
