Extra Virgin Olive Oil with Merquén

Etnia is a Chilean company that was founded in 2004 in order to develop premium food products informed by the traditions of the country's ethnic groups.

Since its inception, we have worked with indigenous communities from the northern and southern parts of our country using a Fair Trade approach.

Our products come from the rainy forests of the south and Atacama, the world's driest desert. We sell our products in the best gourmet shops and in restaurants that use Chilean spices and seasonings.
