

Drive Your Business Forward with DATA, AI, and SUSTAINABILITY

At Itiers Data Sense, we specialize in turning data into strategic value.

With over 20 years of experience, we help organizations make smarter decisions based on reliable information.

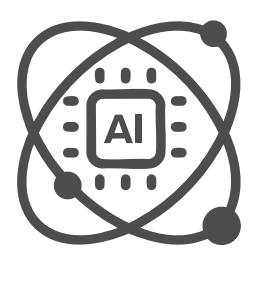

We're here to help you optimize processes, make informed choices, and build a sustainable future for your business.

What We Do

Empower Your Decisions With Data

Leverage your data to gain key insights that drive your strategy. We create customized solutions that transform information into real value.

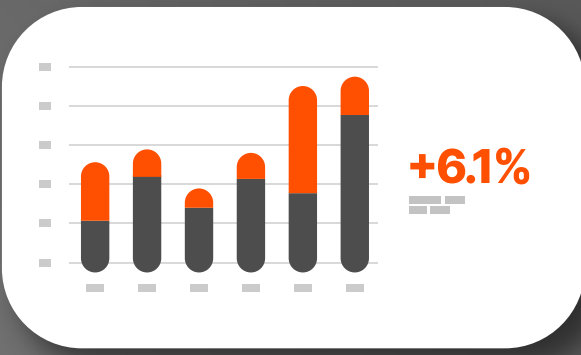

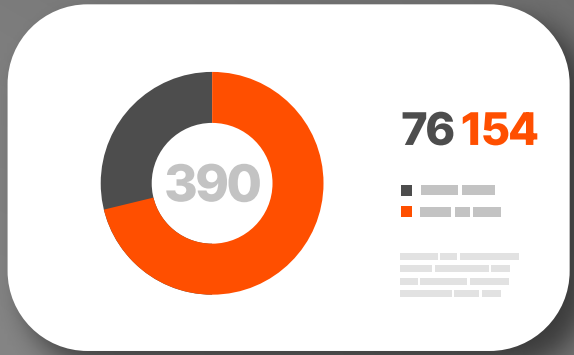

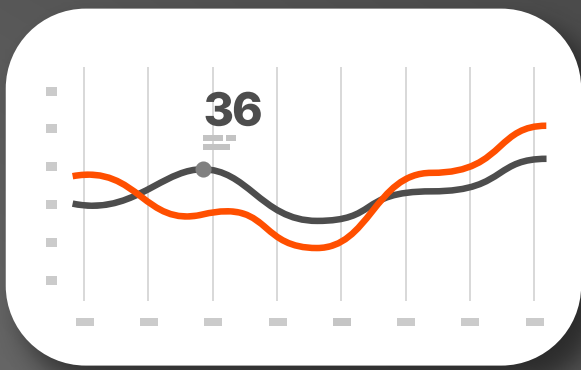

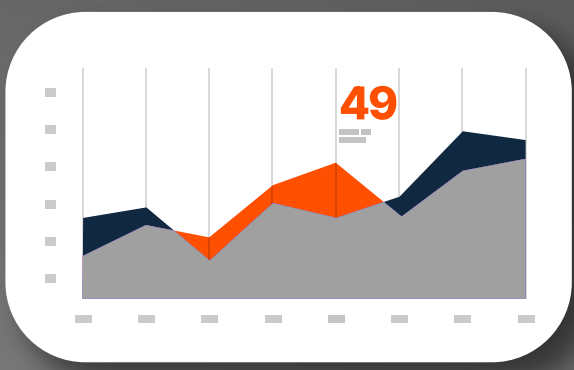

AI-Driven Transformation

We integrate advanced AI tools to automate processes, predict trends, and enhance operational efficiency.

Sustainability at the Core

We implement responsible technologies and strategies that benefit both your business and the environment.
