The truth is that it is an app that was more than necessary in these times. The aesthetic is super friendly, and it has functionalities that add extra ease and comfort to everything that is looking for work, such as matchmaking, or how to let us know that a company was interested in our CV.
AMAZING APP.

After the month we started using Workifit, the number of applicants we received increased considerably, both through the platform and through other means, thanks to the diffusion and ads made of the calls. This helped us to quickly fill the vacancies that we had open.

FAQs

What can I do in the Trial version?

You can enjoy all the same benefits that the Premium version offers, for a maximum of 14 days. This will allow you to publish up to 5 simultaneous job opportunities, send invitations to candidates and receive unlimited applications.

When should I start paying?

After the Trial is finished, you can choose one of the Starter, Premium or Enterprise plans, and at that time we will proceed with the billing of the service.

Can I unsubscribe at any time?

Yes, any of the plans can be canceled at any time, simply by contacting your account executive.

Can I pay to post a one-time opportunity?

Yes, if you want to publish only one opportunity, you can contract the Starter plan only for the period of 1 month.

Can I headhunt the Workifit candidate base?

Yes, you can do headhunting and hidden searches. By indicating the requirements of the position and the characteristics of the job opportunity, the system will show you a ranking of recommended candidates that you can contact.

Can I pay just to spread my employer brand?

Yes. In case you do not have active vacancies at the moment, but you still want your brand to gain visibility in the market, we suggest you purchase the Starter plan, which will allow you to spread your brand in the Workifit app with a very low investment. You will also have a space available to post an opportunity whenever you want.

How does Workifit publicize my employer brand and job opportunities?

Workifit spreads the characteristics that best make your company stand out, massively and through multiple channels, such as: the Workifit website, the mobile app, the blog, Instagram, LinkedIn and Twitter. This means that thousands of people each week can come into contact with your brand and job opportunities. Also, if you have the Premium or Enterprise Plan, we can even publish a blog post on "What is it like to work in your company?" and even invest in advertising so that your offers reach a larger audience ;)

Can I hire the service as a consultant?

Yes, the plans are just as valid for consultants. You just have to keep in mind that all opportunities published in Workifit must always indicate which company they are for, since we do not allow the publication of confidential job opportunities.

Does the platform help me to manage my recruitment processes?

Yes, you can use the Workifit backoffice as a management system for all your processes, centralizing the management of candidates, taking advantage of the pre-screening of requirements carried out by the system, the functionalities to simplify communications with applicants, etc.

What type of companies are on the platform?

At Workifit there are innovative companies of all sectors, which stand out for their concern for people, working conditions and the work environment. The vast majority are companies that use technology as one of the pillars in their processes, although they are not necessarily dedicated to software development.
