

We are an agricultural farming and trading company based in Uruguay and Paraguay Focused in Grains, Oilseeds, Oils and Fats, Proteins, Wood logs, Charcoal and Food-Stuff, in the domestic, regional and overseas markets. We have strategical Joint Ventures in Argentina, Bolivia and Brazil with farmers and cooperatives. Farming ourselves and working together with farmers and suppliers, offering logistics, financial solutions, quality support, and technical development, are the key to our success and superior quality products.

We take care of our customers with an open dialogue to understand their needs and satisfy their requirements. We guarantee a customized and efficient logistics execution for their demands, offering shipments from 1-ton to 10000-ton and packing bulk or bagged as per their specific demands.

MISSION

Our Mission is to offer the agro-commodities produced in South America with added value from our farms, farmers and producers to our valued customers. We provide the most efficient logistics from the farming land and producers warehouse until goods are delivered at final destination. We take care of the quality required from our customers, working together with our suppliers as a team looking for the excellence of the goods.

VISION

Our vision is to work as a team every day to find effectiveness in our business giving to our farmers, producers and customers the biggest benefit. In The Grain Leader we cooperate as a team, to get the best from our farms for our customers. Our commitment is to build long term relationship with our customers and develop new ones based in trust, honesty and friendship.
